Matthias

Omaha | Exploring new connections through self-direction

About Me

Matthias is an easygoing adult who values clear communication, structure, and familiar routines. He is limited verbal and prefers writing or short, direct phrases to express himself. Matthias is thoughtful about language and will let others know which words feel comfortable for him.

He enjoys staying active and being outdoors, especially bike riding, swimming, and gathering around campfires, which he proudly calls "bonfires." Matthias does best with calm, attentive people who take time to understand how he communicates.

What Matters Most To Me

Consistency, respectful communication, and regular social interaction are important to Matthias. Physical activity plays a key role in supporting his mood and overall well-being. He benefits from predictable routines paired with flexibility when needed.

Waivers & Services

DDAD | Community Integration, Respite, Supported Family Living

Strengths, Interests & Support Focus

Matthias enjoys Disney movies, watching favorites on Disney+, DVDs, and VHS, and staying organized with multiple calendars that track birthdays and events. He likes making lists, playing Hangman, coloring, and staying connected with family and friends through messages and care packages.

Support focuses on daily living skills, household routines, communication, emotional regulation, and community engagement. Matthias requires supervision at all times due to communication, mood, and behavior needs.

Connect With Me

Matthias is exploring new connections through Soaring Connections, a community helping individuals and families connect with trusted independent providers.
